

Message from the President

Hello Spring!

Those CAHRA members with graduating high school seniors who will be attending college this fall, please submit your application for CAHRA's Sons and Daughters Scholarship. The Scholarship application can be found on CAHRA's website under Member Resources. The Sons and Daughters Scholarship was established to assist member's children with first year college expenses. Three $500 scholarships are awarded each year. Applications may be submitted to Angela Crain, our College Relations Chairperson, acrain@holmes.edu. All applications considered must be postmarked by May 15, 2017.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, contact CAHRA's Sons and Daughters Award, Selection Committee, P O Box 16042 Jackson, MS 39211.

Anyone interested in speaking for CAHRA's Diversity Minute in an upcoming meeting, please contact Jackie Mack, jmack@topamerica.com.

Also, I would like to recap our announcement during the March CAHRA meeting...our April CAHRA meeting will be held Wednesday MORNING on April 19th, Hilton Penthouse, at 8:30 – 10:00 a.m.

Tamara Bailey,
SHRM-CP, PHR

MEETING INFORMATION

DATE: April 19, 2017

TIME: 8:30am—10:00am

LOCATION: Hilton Jackson

SPEAKER: Kris Evans

TOPIC: Identity Theft in the Workplace and its impact on
HR

Kris Evans

Harvard Risk Management

Kris has been an Executive with Harvard Risk Management corporation and oversees the company's national marketing efforts. He is recognized nationally as an expert in identity theft, and has been a speaker at many SHRM conferences and events. Kris also manages the training and support for agents who market small business legal access plans.

Harvard Risk Management Corporation (HRMC) is a privately held employee benefits broker established in 1993. Initially the company focused its efforts on marketing group legal plans through LegalShield (formally Pre-Paid Legal Services, Inc.) HRMC has successfully marketed over 250,000 legal plans in the last 20 years, making it one of the largest brokers of this type of service in North America. In 2004 the company added an identity theft monitoring and restoration plan to its portfolio. This plan has become one of the most popular benefits offered by the company because of the unique restoration services that are provided by Kroll Fraud Solutions Group.
