

Message from the President

Oh what a Day! I hope everyone enjoyed the Memorial Day weekend! This should be a time of reflection and remembrance of those who lost their lives while serving our country. The sacrifices made to protect our lives and our freedom are nothing short of incredible.

On a brighter note...I would like to announce that SHRM has awarded CAHRA the 2016 Platinum Excel Award. This award recognizes outstanding achievements in chapter operations and a commitment to providing meaningful programs and services to its members. As Hank Jackson states in the Excel Award press release, "Advancing the human resources profession is a daily mission at SHRM and your chapter's outstanding work this year contributed significantly to that goal." I would like to recognize CAHRA's 2016 President, Jessica Kinard, for her outstanding leadership and her hand in making this happen.

Lastly, the 2017 SHRM Annual Conference & Expo will take place June 18-21, 2017 in New Orleans, LA. I hope you take this opportunity to mingle with other CAHRA members and meet new peers along the way. Human Resource professionals from around the world travel to this event to collaborate with other HR experts, hear about new trends and new ideas and just have a plain old good time learning as much as they can about this exciting field. I hope to see you there!

Tamara Bailey,
SHRM-CP, PHR

Murray Harber

MS Business Group on Health

Murray is a thought leader in human performance and employer health management. He writes for several business publications and also speaks across the country on employer health, value-based benefit design, and athletic development. His career includes building award winning programs for health care services, delivery organizations, manufacturing, and professional services. Murray's experience includes being a speed and strength coach to collegiate and Olympic athletes, managing corporate fitness centers, directing large employer wellness programs, and has helped to improve community health by volunteering and sharing his gifts in his community.

CAHRA's very own Sara Yates received the Spirit of HR Award at the 22nd annual Mississippi Human Resource Conference & Expo held in Tupelo, MS April 3-5, 2017. Congratulations, Sara! You are certainly deserving of this outstanding award!
